Re: Krafcsik vs. Egnatia
Case No. 19-CV-05376

Dear Justice Torres:

At the time of the recent decision, I went into Pacer to obtain a copy of the Order, and I saw that it listed both my clients, Carl Chisolm and Priya Chisolm as "terminated." I knew that was not accurate.

After a couple of conversations with the docket clerk, I understand the record has been corrected as to Priya Chisolm. Her cross claim against Egnatia does continue. The plaintiff's claim against my clients was discontinued, as was the Egnatia claim against my clients.

It appears however, that I made a clerical error in filing the original answer with cross claims because they were by both Carl and Priya as husband and wife, but the record only reflected the filing by Priya against Egnatia.

Would your honor allow the record to be corrected so that it would reflect that the cross claims are from both Priya and Carl Chisolm?

Very truly yours,

CAROL LILIENFELD
